

CAREER OPPORTUNITY

Senior Manager (Production)

Position Based in	: Karachi – Pakistan
Gender	: Either (Preferably female)
Age	: Maximum 32 years
Qualification	: B.E. (Chemical or Mechanical) / M.Sc. (Chemistry) from reputed university recognized by HEC
Professional Experience	: 5-7 year relevant experience in a manufacturing concern with at least 3 years at a managerial position

Key Accountabilities / Responsibilities

- To coordinate the production activities in order to ensure maximum efficiency and harmony focused towards getting desired set targets in production and quality of product.
- To set a production target and make out all efforts to achieve it.
- To carry out inspections of machine clothing's, thread, invisible fiber and other material and to submit recommendation to accept/reject chemicals/materials after conducting durability compatibility and run ability tests on machine wherever possible.
- To suggest the departmental heads ways and means whereby the production efficiency can be improved.
- Lead and mentor the production team, ensuring strict adherence to quality standards.
- Coordinate with maintenance teams to ensure equipment reliability and safety following all side protocols.
- To prepare annual budget for onward submission.
- To prepare daily/monthly/down time, raw materials and chemical consumption reports. Monitor the consumption of material/chemicals and make it possible to remain within given standard consumption figures.
- Implement best industrial practices at site.
- Handle emergency scenarios at plant site.

Required Skills

- Excellent leadership, communication, and problem-solving skills.
- Ability to work under pressure and meet deadlines.
- Detail oriented and diligent.
- Current knowledge of engineering and production.
- Professional capacity to train and lead the operations team.
- Expertise in production planning, and process improvement skills.

Interested candidates may apply at hr@security-papers.com