

CAREER OPPORTUNITY

Senior Manager Production
Location	Karachi
Gender	Either
Age	32-35 Years
Qualification	B.E. (Chemical) from HEC Recognized Institute/University
Professional Experience	7-10 years relevant experience in a manufacturing concern with at least 3 years at a managerial position

Key Accountabilities / Responsibilities

- Coordinate the production activities in order to ensure maximum efficiency focused towards getting annual production targets with focus on quality standards.
- To carry out inspections of machine clothing's, thread, invisible fiber and other material and to submit recommendation to accept/reject chemicals/materials after conducting durability compatibility and run ability tests on machine wherever possible.
- To implement ideas to improve production efficiency.
- Guide production team to achieve annual targets against set KPI's
- Coordinate with maintenance teams to ensure equipment reliability and safety following all side protocols.
- To prepare annual budget for onward submission.
- To prepare daily/monthly/down time, raw materials and chemical consumption reports.
- Monitor the consumption of material/chemicals and make it possible to remain within given standard consumption figures.
- Implement best industrial practices at site.
- Guide production team to handle emergency scenarios at site.

Required Skills

- Excellent leadership, communication, and problem-solving skills.
- Ability to work under pressure and meet deadlines.
- Detail oriented and diligent.
- Current knowledge of production and safety protocols.
- Professional capacity to train and lead the team.
- Expertise in production planning, and process improvement skills.

Interested candidates may apply at hr@security-papers.com latest by 15th May 2025.*

Internal candidates may only apply if the advertised position is one grade above their current level.*